Pastor's Message – November 10, 2024

Dear Friends,

Care for the Weakest:

I would like to begin this afternoon by focusing in on the plight of widows as presented in the Bible. In ancient times if a man died, his widow was in a precarious situation if she did not have an adult son to protect her and care for her. The widow from the first reading, the widow of Zeraphath, was suffering from the famine. She did have a son, but he was a little child. Imagine her horror when she realized that she could scrape just a little more food for her son and herself, before they would both starve to death. No one cared about her, no one except God who sent the prophet Elijah to her. But first, she had to trust in God. She had to follow the law of hospitality, caring for the stranger. And God rewarded her generosity.

Jesus marvelled that a widow who had so little, gave to the Temple Treasury. He rejoices when those like her are cared for by society. We, the rich, should rejoice when there is care for the poor. Indeed, the strength of our society, and any society, is measured by the concern we have for our weakest members

Information

1. Remember to keep our churches' perfume free. There are many who are allergic to scents or perfumes. Some are not able to breathe because of perfumes and some others have itching on their nose or eyes. Let us try together to have a friendly, perfume free, church of worship, please.

2. November is the month specially set apart for remembering our dear and near ones who are no longer with us. We can pray for them, offer special masses for the repose of their souls, give alms and food for the needy on behalf of them.

3. Always remember, none of the souls in purgatory cannot pray for themselves. As humans, we are capable of praying for them, for us and for others. We try to believe that our dear and near ones are in heaven, or in purgatory. If they are in heaven, our prayers and offerings will help some other souls in purgatory. None of our offerings and prayers will go in waist

4. Both parishes of Holy Family, Fernie and St. Bernard's Church, Elkford are far behind from the given target of fulfilling the Pilgrimage of Faith Target. If all of you could pay attention to this and give your Sunday collections on this behalf, till we meet our target, that will be an additional generosity on your part.

- See page 4 to donate with Square.
- Donation envelopes are available inside the church.

5. Proposed time for Christmas and New year masses. If anyone has a different opinion, let me know in a month.

6. I am enjoying my holidays to India from November 4, Monday to November 22, Friday. Fr. Julian Studden, from Calgary, will be replacing me. He will come on November 8, Friday and will stay in the Rectory. He will leave Sparwood on November 20, Wednesday. He will offer weekend and weekday Masses and will be doing the Care Home Masses too. He may need some help from the secretaries.

7. There will be weekday masses and care home Masses according to the discretion of the replacing priests. But certainly, there will be weekend Masses as well as anointing of the sick and funeral masses, if needed.
